STORY

1. The Thirsty Crow

Once there was a crow. It was very thirsty. It looked for water here and there, but it could not get water. At last it saw a pot of water, but there was very little water. It thought of an idea, it picked up some stones and put it in to the pot. Slowly slowly water came up pluck, pluck, pluck...it drank the water and flew away happily.

Moral: Where there is a will, there is a way.

2. Fox and the grapes

Once There was a fox. It was very hungry. It saw bunches of grapes hanging over him. It jumped again and again, but it could not reach the grapes. At last the fox was tired. It said “ Ugh..! The grapes are sour, I don’t want them and it walked away from there.

Moral: Pride brings down fall.
